Indianapolis Team Wants Yancey.

The Indianapolis team of the American Association wants to sign center-fielder Hoag Yancey, manager and half owner of the Lexington base ball team. The offer was made by President Watkins, of the Indianapolis Club, who asked that the Lexington club set a price on Yancey, who stated that he would not go as he has been elected to the office of City Attorney, of Lexington, and expects to remain and hold down that position. Mr. Yancey has not yet decided whether he will play ball in 1912, but he is certain that he will not play outside of Lexington.

Eddie Foy in "Over the River."

Eddie Foy in his newest comedy success, "Over the River," comes to the Lexington Opera House Monday matinee and night, November 20 under the management of Chas. Dillingham and F. Ziegfeld, Jr. Mr. Foy is said to be better suited this year than at any time in the past dozen seasons for not only is his role exorcisingly funny, but the company and production are of the best. Messrs. Dillingham Ziegfeld are well known as the foremost producers of musical comedy in the world, and they have fairly outdone themselves in giving Mr. Foy the best possible settings and the most gorgeous costuming. The chorus is said to be the prettiest in the world. The story concerns the involuntary imprisonment of a man about town for thirty days in the workhouse "over the river," as it is called in New York slang. Mr. Foy plays this role and in the second act has to appear in stripes.

THEATRICAL."PECK'S BAD BOY."

Every scene in "Peck's Bad Boy," which is the attraction at the Grand on Friday evening, November 17, will be familiar to the many people who will delight in this opportunity of seeing once more a play which has delighted them so many times in the past. The first act is played in the corner grocery store conducted by the old German, Schultz, who is the butt of most of the Bad Boy's good natured pranks. The second act shows a typical hotel office which the Bad Boy turns upside down in less time than it takes to tell and the third act represents a family picnic which would have been orderly, peaceful and quiet had it not been for the lively scion of the house of Peck.

The play is primarily a comedy and has been written only with the intention of making people laugh. It has, however, a tuneful musical setting supplied by various members of the company, all of whom are clever vaudeville entertainers. Popular prices 25, 35 and 50 cents.

DEATHS.

—Mrs. Ida L. Ford, aged 55 years, died at the Good Samaritan Hospital in Lexington Friday night after an illness of three days of uraemic poisoning. She was the wife of Capt. J. C. Ford, of the Lexington Detective Department. Before her marriage she was Miss Davis, of Woodford county and a sister of Mrs. W. E. Hibler, who formerly resided in Bourbon county. The funeral services were held Sunday. The Rev. O. B. Crockett officiating.

—Mr. Alexander Duke, aged 64 years, died Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at his home near Mayslick, Mason county, of cancer of the stomach.

Mr. Duke had been ill for months suffering with a cancerous malady, and his wife and daughters were constantly at his bedside and were with him when the end came.

Deceased was prominent and successful farmer and stock raiser and was noted as breeder of fine shorthorn cattle.

Mr. Duke was a gallant Confederate soldier and was a member of General John H. Morgan's brigade.

He was not a member of any church but his funeral services will be conducted this morning at 11 o'clock at his late home by Rev. Thompson, pastor of the Mayslick Baptist church, the interment following in the Mayslick cemetery.

He is survived by his wife and two daughters, Miss Mary Duke, of Maysville, and Mrs. Jas. B. Woodford, of Bourbon county.

—Robert Cameron, aged about 35 years, died at his home on the Peacock pike, near this city, Saturday morning after an illness of several weeks of typhoid fever. The deceased was a son of Thos. Cameron and unmarried. The funeral services were held at the grave in the Paris cemetery yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock, conducted by Rev. E. M. Lightfoot. The pallbearers were Harry Holt, George McConnell, John Bowen, George McCandles, Blanton Green, Emmett Howard.

—A press dispatch from Chicago Saturday announced the death of Dr. B. Brindley Eads, formerly of this county, which occurred in that city Friday. Dr. Eads, a surgeon at the county hospital in that city and Dean of the Illinois Medical College. He was born in Ruddles Mills, this county, and it was there he spent the early part of his life. He was the only child of the late Dr. D. D. Eads, of Paris.

—Mrs. Wm. P. Hume, aged about 60 years, died at her home on Second street in this city yesterday afternoon about three o'clock after an illness of more than a year, and recently suffered a stroke of paralysis.

Mrs. Hume was the daughter of the late Morris P. Gass, one of Bourbon county's most prominent farmers and a sister of the late Mrs. Harriett Clay. She was born and raised in Bourbon county and spent the whole of her life in this community.

She was a member of the Presbyterian church and until her health failed was one of its most consistent attendants, taking an active part in church work and was prominent in its societies.

During her late illness she bore her suffering with Christian fortitude and was patient until the last hour of her life. She is survived by her husband, one stepdaughter, Mrs. Oscar Donaldson, of Oklahoma, and one stepson, Mr. D. P. Hume, of this city.

The funeral will take place at the family residence on Second street this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Services conducted by Rev. Dr. B. M. Shive, assisted by Elder Carey E. Moragn. Burial in Paris cemetery. The pallbearers will be Jas. McClure, John Towles, Brutus Clay, John Woodford, Chas. Clendenin, Dr. Frank Faries.

Jett Proud of Victory.

News of the result of the election in Kentucky reached the Frankfort penitentiary only a day late, and every convict at all interested in politics knew the day after the election that the Democrats had won. The two men in the prison who were most pleased by the result were Judge C. E. Booe and Curt Jett. Jett had a paper rooster cut from a newspaper pinned on his coat as he marched in the line. Because of Jett's fine prison record he is allowed more privileges than most of the convicts and for that reason nothing was said to him about wearing the rooster.
